

CT FCCLA Fall Leadership Conference –
Harvest Your Potential with FCCLA
November 10, 2009

Draft IV

Use these Workshop numbers when registering.
Some workshops may be added or moved, as needed.
Check back at the website for updates.

Workshop 1 9:40 – 10:25

- A1 Tour of Campus by the Admissions Tour Guides starting in Dining Hall
- B1 A Healthy look at a career in Nutrition and Dietetics by Catherine Wickham, RD
Discover the exciting field of Nutrition and Dietetics. Explore potential career related opportunities. Learn about the Nutrition program at Saint Joseph College.
McDonough Hall Room 305
- C1 teacher Certification in Early Childhood Special Education by Dr. Margaret Palmeri Do you aspire to be an early childhood teacher? Learn about coursework, the lab schools and the field experiences offered in the Saint Joseph College Early Childhood Special Education Teacher Preparation Program. Participate in a simulated class and end with the opportunity to ask questions.
McDonough Hall Room 112
- D1 So you want to be an Officer? by Mike Izquierdo, Katherine Larson and Tommy Valus This is an interactive and exciting workshop during which National Officer, Michael Izquierdo, and 2 state officers will help bring out the leadership potential in everyone. It will also give some background information about how to improve your chapter and what it takes to make it to the state council.
Bruyette Athenaeum Second Floor Reception Room
- E1 Thinking about a career in teaching? Consider Family and Consumer Sciences! By Lori P. Matyjas, State Consultant for FCS and Kari-Lyn Osborne, SJC FCS student teacher Come to hear about becoming a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher from an SJC student and current FCS student teacher.
Mercy Hall Crystal Room
- F1 NEW STAR EVENTS..... More is Better! In with the New! by Bryony Cannings and Will Kaseta Have a fun time learning about the new STAR events, Environmental Ambassador, Fashion Design and Food Innovations. The workshop incorporates exciting games and energetic presenters to help FCCLA members become well acquainted with the STAR events and the star event process.
Dining Hall

Workshop II

10:35 – 11:20

- A2 Tour of Campus by the Admissions Tour Guides starting in Dining Hall
- B2 Theory + Research + Real Kids & Families = HDFS by Vivian J. Carlson, Ph.D., Patrick Nickoletti, Ph.D., and Cara DeAngelis, current Child Study major. Find out how Human Development and Family Studies Majors at Saint Joseph College combine class work, observations, action research, field studies, internships, advocacy and group projects to become some of the most sought after human service professionals in Connecticut. Meet HDFS professors and a current student, ask questions, and find out about recent graduates' careers
McDonough Hall Room 305
- C2 Membership Ideas by Eileen McCarthy and Sarah Littlefield
What is the name of that membership drive? How do we affiliate and what do we do when it's hard to collect dues? Bruyette Athenaeum Second Floor Reception Room
- D2 Dig It: the new national Community Service Project by Natalie Forino and Juliana Foster Miracle Children's Network...yes, they need our help! Here's what we can do! Mercy Hall Crystal Room
- E2 Adviser Update by Roz Diemand and Karin Pyskaty Learn how to simplify and delegate while accomplishing lots of great activities.
What's new from Nationals and how everything is becoming more user friendly.
McDonough Hall Room 112