YOU ARE FCCLA: SPRING CONFERENCE 2011

MANCHESTER COMMUNITY COLLEGE, CT, MARCH 22, 2011: The theme for this year's spring conference was YOU are FCCLA, and was held at Manchester Community College in Connecticut. Schools from all over the state came together to compete in STAR Events and participate in workshops. This was a chance for students to showcase their family career and community skills and display what they have been working so hard on this past year. (Name of School) is one of the schools that participated from (Name of Town) with (#of attendees) members attending and (# of competitors) members competing in STAR and skill events.

At the conference all students did an excellent job presenting their projects and exhibiting their skills. Many scholarships were awarded to students who did an exemplary job and shined in their category. Those students who earned the top score in their category will go to Nationals which is being held in Anaheim, CA this year. (Name of students) plan on going to compete at Nationals. It was a very successful conference and we look forward to seeing members in Anaheim and again next year.

(In this paragraph, tell how your chapter members did in the STAR and Skilled Events, what they learned and how they benefited from participating. Be concise and informative.)

FCCLA: The Ultimate Leadership Experience is a dynamic and effective national student organization that helps young men and women become leaders and address important personal, family, work, and societal issues through Family and Consumer Sciences Education. FCCLA has more than 219,000 members and nearly 7,000 chapters from 50 state associations, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The organization has involved more than ten million youth since its founding in 1945.

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is unique among youth organizations because its programs are planned and run by student members. It is the only Career and Technical Student Organization with the family as its central focus. Participation in national programs and chapter activities helps members become strong leaders in their families, careers, and communities.
